D-O-G, Zuko & Strawberry

Congratulations Dwayne!

There is a man we all love and Dwayne is his name.
He set his sights high on fortune and fame.
After 30 years in, he was set to retire,
with goals and dreams that were sure to inspire.
And so off to Humber he went,
with skills and talent that were heaven sent.
This we can say and know to be true,
Chef Boy R Duh we are proud of you.

*Congratulations on graduating with honours!!
Lots of love Mom, Sandie, Kyle, Tyler and Cass.*

Congratulations to Rachel Case on graduating with distinction from Queen's University! We are so proud of you. With love, from your family.

OBITUARIES

OBITUARIES

WILLIAMS, Michael James

Wyoming, and Roofmart in Sarnia. Most recently, Mike was at Home Hardware in Watford, where he honed his talent of looking busy without actually doing much work. Mike made a number of friends there, a second family really, that were so supportive to Mike during the last few months. Special thanks to Deb McNeil for providing Mike with some much-needed laughs on the bad days.

In his free time, Mike liked to read, spend time outside, and do 'research' on his phone until he'd throw it across the room because it 'wasn't working.' Sorry dad, but the operator is to blame. Mike would also happily stop and 'shoot the shit' with anyone. You could learn a lot from him, but you wouldn't get any smarter.

Mike had a lot of friends, too many to list, and we would like to thank everyone for putting up with Mike for as long as they did. Special thanks to Anne Boody-Horwood for her special chats with Mike; to Mary Ann Martin for her friendship and support to Mike and the family; to Mike's niece Sarah Ranstoller for her support in the last days; to Peter Zenick for his care and friendship; and to Tracey Williams for being the strongest mom to Atlee and Tareesa. During Mike's tougher times, Tracey took Mike into her home, where he could spend more time with Atlee and Tareesa and wouldn't have to face this challenge alone.

Thank you to the Emergency Department, Critical Care Trauma Centre, London Regional Cancer Program, and Inpatient Oncology departments at Victoria Hospital in London for giving us a few more precious weeks with dad. Thanks to Dr. Daniel and to Acute Care at Bluewater Health in Petrolia for their care as well.

Special thanks to all the staff, volunteers, and physicians at St. Joseph's Hospice in Sarnia for making his last days free of pain, but full of laughs, manipedis, and 2 a.m. chocolate sundaes.

Cremation has taken place. A celebration of life, the 'COL' as Mike called it, will occur at a later date, when we can all gather to party like Mike was so good at.

Please feel free to share a memory of Mike here, www.watfordfuneralhome.com. Or, in typical Mike fashion, they can be written on a scrap piece of plywood in permanent marker, because there's 'no point in buying paper when this works fine.' If desired, donations can be made to Childcan or St. Joseph's Hospice, Sarnia.

Arrangements entrusted to DENNING'S OF WATFORD.

A wonderful person,
friend and aide, one who was better God never made;
a wonderful worker, so loyal and true, one in a million – that person was you.
Just in your judgment, always right; honest and liberal, ever upright;
loved by your friends and all whom you knew.
Our wonderful friend – that person was you.
