A CALL TO NATURE: CAPTURED BY OUR READERS

These photos were the favourites among the many submissions in our Call to Nature photo invite, as selected by Metroland Halton photographer Graham Paine. Scan the code at right to view more great images from our readers. Clockwise from top left, a hawk rests in a rural-area backyard pine tree. A family of robins nests among backyard trees. A picturesque sunset hangs over Mary Street. A midland painted turtle visits a backyard near Hungry Hollow. A frog makes its way along the Bruce Trail.
