WHAT TO KNOW ABOUT THE HALTON FREEDOM CELEBRATION FESTIVAL

The upcoming Halton Freedom Celebration Festival celebrates Emancipation and is presented by the Halton Black History Awareness Society.

Here's what you need to know about the event.

1.) The free virtual celebration will be held on Aug.1 between 5 and 7 p.m.

2.) Special guests will include historians, government representatives, community leaders and entertainers, a number of whom are descendants of enslaved peoples.

3.) The event will also feature freedom/equality activists who will speak about racism and promote cultural knowledge, inclusive integration and authentic equality.

4.) The presentation will celebrate, through stories and music, the British Emancipation Act of 1834 when the British government abolished slavery in its colonies.

5.) The August 1 celebration will also mark the first year of Emancipation Day being officially recognized across Canada after a unanimous vote by federal MPs in March of 2021 and Burlington being the first city in the world to acclaim August as Emancipation Month.

6.) The HBHAS is partnering with the Canadian Caribbean Association of Halton to host an Emancipation Day drive-thru BBQ where 200 free meals will be offered.

7.) Participants are required to pre-order meals through <https://bit.ly/3B0F5DI> and meals can be picked up on Sunday, Aug. 1 between 3-5 p.m. at the Queen Elizabeth Park Community and Cultural Centre, 2302 Bridge Rd.

8.) Chef Romaine will be preparing his Curry Crab Fritters featured in the Sizzlin' Halton cooking series broadcast this summer on Cogeco.

9.) Tickets are available at <https://hbhas.ca/events.php>

10.) HBHAS develops programs to erode racism, prejudice and stereotyping towards marginalized individuals and communities while increasing knowledge of Canadian history and its cultural landscape.
