When an Acton couple discovered the news about their big win, the store clerk thought they were joking.

Carole-Ann Barber and Malcom Kilburn may have been smiling, but their win was no joke.

The couple shared a MaxMillions prize in the June 18 Lotto Max draw. Sharing the same numbers as another ticket, the couple won a $500,000 prize.

"We play Lotto Max and Lotto 6/49, especially when the jackpot is high," Barber said.

The retired couple told a couple of close friends about their win before visiting the OLG prize centre to claim their winnings.

Carole-Ann Barber and Malcom Kilburn recently won $500,000.

They are planning to invest their winnings and use some toward a new apartment with easier accessibility. Barber and Kilburn bought their winning ticket at Royal Jug City on Queen Street in Acton.

GETTING USED TO NEW HEARING INSTRUMENTS

Part 2

If you are having difficulty with the hearing instruments, or do not like the sound quality, discuss it with your Hearing Practitioner. Chances are there are adjustments that can be made to the instruments to accommodate your complaint.

Remember that you are not alone. There are millions of people with hearing loss, and as the Baby Boomers age, the numbers grow. It is nothing to be ashamed of, and there are many treatment options available to you in these modern times.
