THINGS TO DO

5 THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT THE MOVIE UNDER THE STARS EVENT

MELANIE HENNESSEY

mhennessy@metroland.com

It's almost that time again to enjoy a show on the big screen for a good cause.

The fifth annual Movie Under the Stars event is returning to Georgetown. Here's everything you need to know:

1. The event will be held in a drive-in format this year on Aug. 21 in the parking lot at Mold-Masters SportsPlex, where "Jumanji" featuring Robin Williams will be screened. Arrival starts at 7 p.m., with the movie kicking off at sundown.

2. The cost is $40 per car. Tickets are available to purchase at <http://fund-raiser.bid/muts>. Funds raised will be used to support local at-risk youth programs via the charity C.A.R.E. (Community Alliance Reaching Everyone).

This year's Movie Under the Stars will be drive-in style.

3. Organizers are asking those who attend to bring their own snacks. Treats will also be available to purchase from an on-site ice cream truck.

4. In addition to the movie night, an online silent auction is being held to raise more funds for C.A.R.E. Items can be viewed and bid on at the aforementioned website.

5. The event is being sponsored by over two dozen local businesses, with a variety of others supporting the cause through silent auction item donations.
