

Dear Neighbours

We're marking yet another holiday with more subdued celebrations than usual ... but perhaps getting better and better at finding ways to "be together" without necessarily "getting together". Most of us will have to relearn our cooking-for-a-crowd skills when the time comes. Let's keep hoping for it to be just around the corner.

Like your other favourite stores, ours will soon be filling up with delicious, beautiful and wonderful things for Christmas. Previews are already appearing on our social media. Please visit Foodstuffs.ca and follow us on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

Foodstuff is open to in-store shopping from 9:30 to 5:30, Monday to Saturday. We're continuing to fill curbside orders for customers who prefer this. Masks and hand-sanitizing are still required ... and honestly, they seem a good idea anyway in what would ordinarily now be cold and flu season :)

These are the things I prize

And hold of dearest worth:
 Light of the sapphire skies,
 Peace of the silent hills,
 Shelter of forests, comfort of the grass,
 Music of birds, murmur of little rills,
 Shadow of clouds that swiftly pass,
 And, after showers,
 The smell of flowers
 And of the good brown earth -
 And best of all, along the way, friendship and mirth ...

Henry van Dyke (1852-1933)
