A destination for fashion and beauty

Being deprived of professional services for our hair, nails and skin and seeing the doors of local fashion boutiques closed has guaranteed that these businesses won't be taken for granted in the future. Now that pandemic health guidelines have been relaxed, Downtown Georgetown is once again a destination for fashion and beauty needs.

After the pandemic pause, local businesses are ready to serve customers whose support is needed now more than ever. It's also a time when many of us could use some personal pampering and retail therapy – the bricks and mortar kind.

Returning to a spa or hair salon has been a welcome experience and your local beauty professionals are happy to

SPAS: Azul Mind Body & Soul Spa; Beauty & Body; The Polished Girl Beauty

HAIR SALONS: Great Expectations Studio, KM Hair & Beauty; Trendz Hair Studio; Mink Hair Lounge; Paula Tedesco Hair Studio; Royal Barber Shop; Salon Estilo

FASHION BOUTIQUES: Elizabeth's Fashions; Moxxi Boutique; Casa Lena; The Way We Were

have you back with pandemic protocols in place. Fashion boutiques have the solutions for tired wardrobes and the staff that can help ensure your choices are a perfect fit and style. Curbside pickup and delivery are often options for shoppers who wish to support local business but not in-person.

Women living with breast cancer wanting to feel confident and comfortable in their clothes can find a complete line of specialty clothes, lingerie, swim suits, and more in the Renaissance Woman department at Young's Pharmacy & Homecare.

Conveniently located in Georgetown's historic downtown, there is plenty of free parking for customers as well as additional shopping and service opportunities.
