

OBITUARIES

HARRIS, Robert (Bob) George
September 19, 1939 - October 5, 2021

member of the Royal Canadian Legion, Acton Branch 197. Bob was a member of the Legion colour bearer, Thursday night seniors cribbage and euchre. He played in the zones. Bob volunteered helping the Women's Auxiliary Acton Branch and played men's seniors golf in Acton, where he was an avid golfer. Bob enjoyed winter horseshoes and mixed darts at the legion. He was a cancer survivor for over 10 years. Bob lived for today, and was known for his positive attitude and great sense of humour. He will be fondly remembered by many friends at the Acton Legion and the Acton Golf Course. The family would like to thank the staff of all the EMS, Georgetown Hospital and the trauma department at the Hamilton General Hospital for their care and compassion during such a difficult time. As per Bob's wishes, cremation has taken place. A Celebration of Life will be held at the Royal Canadian Legion - Acton Branch 197, at a later date. As expressions of sympathy, donations to Bladder Cancer Canada, the Heart & Stroke Foundation or Georgetown Hospital would be appreciated by the family.

Passed away suddenly at the Hamilton General Hospital following a car accident in Acton. Beloved husband of Peggy Anne Harris (née Given). Bob and Peggy were married for 46 years (September 27, 1975). Father of Norman (Sandy) Harris, and step-brother of Rick (Deb) Henley. Predeceased by his parents Norman Harris and Daisy Henley and his brother Russel Harris. Survived by sister-in-law Cathy (Dale) Ireland and brothers-in-law Charles Given and Steve Ireland. Bob worked at Mac Truck Plant in Oakville for most of his life. Semi-retired to enjoy his passions for golf, camping, bowling and travel. He enjoyed annual trips to Myrtle Beach to golf, relax and enjoy the sunshine. He was an active
