

LEST WE FORGET

Graham Paine/Metroland

From left, Royal Canadian Legion Branch 197 President Wes Kutasienski (left) and a fellow Legion member salute after placing wreaths at the cenotaph at the annual Remembrance ceremony in Acton Saturday. The Georgetown Pipe Band leads the parade down Mill Street. Jackson Croft (left) and Joseph De Rabbie lay a wreath on behalf of the NLCC Compass Rose Navy League, a nautical base youth group.

REMEMBER AND HONOUR

For their service, bravery, and sacrifice, we honour the many veterans, past and present, who have served their country.

At Amica Senior Lifestyles, we're thankful for all those who have fought for peace, stood for justice, and charted paths.

We're thankful for our veterans.
