FOUR THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT WOMEN ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

HALTON WOMEN'S PLACE IS BRINGING BACK THE LOTTERY OF HOPE CAMPAIGN

ROLAND CILLIERS

November is Woman Abuse Prevention Month.

The annual campaign is a month-long recognition on the issue of abuse against women across Ontario. Organizations around the province, including here in Halton, will be holding events and showing their support for addressing the problem.

Here are four things you should know about Woman Abuse Prevention Month.

1. Statistics tell the tale

According to the Halton Women's Place, at least half of all women in Canada have experienced at least one incident of physical or sexual violence since they have turned 16, and on average every six days a woman is murdered by her intimate partner.

2. Purple is the colour of courage

The purple scarf has been used as a symbol of the bravery it takes for a woman to leave her abuser. Purple flags will be flying at all town and city halls across the region to show support. Police headquarters will be turning on their purple lights and everyone is encouraged to wear purple on Nov. 15.

3. Worldwide recognition for a problem that crosses borders

Nov. 25 is the International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women. The United Nations reports that all types of violence against women have increased since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic.

4. The answer requires community-wide support

Halton Women's Place has launched its Lottery of Hope Campaign. By purchasing tickets, participants can show their support for the only women's shelter in Halton and help in preventing and ending violence against women. As the jackpot grows, so does the support for women and children experiencing violence and abuse.

Tickets for the lottery can be purchased at www.hwp5050.ca until Dec. 14 — with the final draw happening on Dec. 15 at noon. There will also be an early bird draw on Nov. 15.
