

Dear Neighbours

Like your other favourite stores, ours is filling up with delicious, beautiful and wonderful things for the holidays.

“TEASERS” are appearing regularly in our social media so please follow us on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter and subscribe to our “Half-Baked Ideas” newsletter for the latest scoop.

FOODSTUFFS is open to in-store shopping from 9:30 to 5:30, Monday to Saturday. We’re continuing to fill curbside orders for customers who prefer this. Masks and hand-sanitizing are still required ... and honestly, they seem a good idea anyway in what would ordinarily now be cold and flu season :)

As winter closes in many of us take to our kitchens for the comfort of familiar foods, the joy of sharing recipes (see below) and the adventure of warm, spicy, exotic dishes.

REMEMBER- we’re your best starting point when you’re searching for hard-to-find ingredients or obscure baking wares and gadgets!

Sharing Recipes - A Cautionary Poem

I didn’t have potatoes, so I substituted rice.
 Didn’t have paprika, so I used another spice.
 I didn’t have tomato sauce, so I used tomato paste.
 A whole can not a half can - I don’t believe in waste.
 My friend gave me the recipe and said you couldn’t beat it.
 There must be something wrong with her - I couldn’t even eat it!

A 23-year-old Mississauga man was killed in a two-vehicle crash outside of Acton Sunday night (Nov. 14).

The crash occurred around 7:20 p.m. on Hwy. 7 between Fourth and Fifth Line.

OPP investigators believe the man lost control of his vehicle and was broadsided by an SUV.

"It was snowing, wet, slushy and slippery at the time of the crash," said OPP Sgt. Kerry Schmidt, providing an update Monday morning.

The driver of the car was pronounced dead. The driver of the SUV and a passenger were treated for minor injuries.
