THE WAY WE WERE

This 1900 photo shows the view of Glen Williams as taken from Cemetery Hill. The United Church (with drive shed in the rear right) can be seen on the left of the Credit River with a wagon bridge at centre and footbridge over the dam in foreground. The large building on the right of the river is the Glen Woollen Mills, which burned down in the early 1950s. Barraclough House is up the hill to the right of the mill.
