

OBITUARIES

MEDLAND, "Ted" Edward Raymond
25 Oct 1945 - 23 Nov 2021

Ted was born in Oakville, Ontario and lived on Kerr St. until his parents Horace and Edith moved to the farm on Bronte Creek. Ted attended Blakelock and Nelson Highschools in Oakville before attending Guelph University and graduating from Ontario Teachers College. Ted taught at Thistletown Collegiate Institute before moving westward to spend time in Calgary Alberta where his son Jason was born, and later moved to Smithers British Columbia. Ted and Jason returned to Ontario in 1973, shortly after Horace and Edith moved to the bush property in Acton. Ted worked for Armbr Construction before starting his long career as a lineman with Ontario Hydro. Ted moved back in with Edith after Horace died and looked after her until she was transferred to Allendale Long Term Care Facility. Allendale became a focal point of Ted's life and he continued to volunteer there after Edith's death, forming many friendships including his partner Edna Laird who shared the last years of his life. Ted passed peacefully in the company of Edna and Jason at Milton District Hospital on Tuesday November 23rd. He is predeceased by his brother Leonard, and survived by his brothers Dennis and Fred, his son Jason, his grandsons Lachlan and Solomon as well as many extended family and friends. His generosity of spirit will be deeply missed. Messages of condolence may be left online at www.earlyfuneralhome.com

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.

And have you gone, forever gone and left us here to weep.
Till we are called to follow you, and in the grave to sleep;
yet since you could no longer stay to cheer us with your love,
we hope to meet with you again in the bright world above.

WILKINSON, Barbara Ann

Peacefully, on Friday, November 26, 2021, at her home in Georgetown. Barbara, in her 64th year, beloved wife of Willy for 40 years. Loving mother of Kerry and Cameron. Dear sister of Bonnie (Dominic) Debelis. Barbara was predeceased by her brother Doug Campbell and by her sister Beverley Campbell. Fondly remembered by many nieces and nephews. Cremation has taken place. A private family celebration of Barbara's life will take place at a later date. Memorial contributions to CAMH would be appreciated.

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die.

IN MEMORIAM

Scott David Muir
March 13, 1962 - December 3, 2010

We miss you most at Christmas time!
They are not dead
who live in the hearts they leave behind.
Love,
Lise, Chase, Lynn, and John

MCCLURE, John Laughlin
100th Birthday
December 3, 1921

In loving memory of a dear husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, who passed away 36 years ago on April 27, 1985.

May the road rise to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back,
May the rain fall softly upon your fields
And until we meet again.

Fondly remembered for his sense of humour, storytelling, gentlemanly manner and the twinkle in his eye. To honour and celebrate John's life, a private family gathering will be held at his "Historic 100 year old Family Home." For always, he will be remembered with cherished memories.

Remembered and cherished by wife Ethel; Mary Jane, William, Islay, Stuart, and families. The adoring grandchildren: Sadie, Grace, Glenn, Clarissa, Laughlin, and Fern.

Heavy are our hearts today, memory brings you back once more, to the time when you were with us, to the happy days of yore.

ARMSTRONG, Elgin
November 26, 1951 - December 6, 2011

Tonight the stars are gleaming
On a lonely, silent grave,
Where sleeps in dreamless slumber
One we loved but could not save.
No one knows the silent heartaches,
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief that we bear in silence
For the one we loved so well.

Till we meet again,
Linda, Ken, Katie, Oakley, Audrey

Loving and kind in all your ways,
upright and just to the end of your days;
sincere and true, in your heart and mind,
beautiful memories, you left behind.

A wonderful person,
friend and aide, one who was better
God never made.
