

We are pleased to announce that
HOWITT and ALLISON will be changing to
RAMIREZ ALLISON LLP
As of January 1, 2022

The partners in a limited liability partnership are not personally liable for the negligent acts or omissions of another partner or an employee unless the partner knew of the negligent act or omission and did not take reasonable steps to prevent it. Each partner is personally liable for his or her own actions, and the partnership continues to be liable for the negligence of its partners, associates and employees. Accordingly, there is no reduction or limitation on the liability of the partnership. All of the firm's assets remain at risk. Liability insurance protection for the lawyers of the partnership continues, and minimum insurance requirements, as required by the Partnerships Act, have been established for LLPs by the Law Society. The Law Society has determined that the liability insurance coverage for an LLP is that maintained individually by the partners. The limitation on liability is the only change to the partnership resulting from the legislative amendments and this change will not affect our firm's relationship with any of our clients.
