LACK OF SKILLED POSITIONS SHAPING PANDEMIC JOB MARKET

MELANIE HENNESSEY
mhennessey@metroland.com

The following is part two of a three-part series examining the state of Halton's job market. See the final instalment focusing on the employer perspective next week.

While looking for work can be a tough task at the best of times, those seeking employment during a pandemic are facing a unique set of challenges.

From very limited options in certain fields to COVID-19-related business restrictions and closures eliminating positions, there are certainly more hurdles than usual to overcome when job hunting in Halton Hills, the region as a whole and beyond.
