CRIME

MAN CHARGED WITH INDECENT ACTS

HALTON POLICE LOOKING FOR MORE INFORMATION

Halton police have charged a 32-year-old Acton man in relation to indecent acts.

In September 2021 and January 2022, there were two alleged incidents of an indecent act at different locations in Acton.

In both incidents, police allege the male approached an adult female in his vehicle and began a conversation before exposing himself and committing an indecent act.

During a third incident, the male approached a 14-year-old female and offered her a ride in his vehicle.

The man has been charged with criminal harassment and two counts of committing an indecent act. He was released on an undertaking.

The charges have not been proven in court.

The vehicle used during these incidents is a black 2019 Buick Encore.

Police are asking anyone with information to contact Det. Const. Kim Williams of the 1 District Criminal Investigations Bureau at 905-825-4747, ext. 2418.

Tips can also be submitted anonymously to Crime Stoppers. "See Something? Hear something? Know something?"
