

OBITUARIES

CALDWELL, Jane

and determined woman, her family was the most important thing in life. Jane loved her friends, and was always up to go skiing, golfing, antiquing and travelling. There was nothing better than hopping in the car to just drive, finding every country channel along the way! There was always an open door or a spare bedroom for Jane's family and friends when they passed thru, and a warm kitchen filled with her famous caramel shortbread or pavlova. She will be sorely missed by all. Friends will be received at the Jones Funeral Home, 11582 Trafalgar Road, Georgetown, on Saturday, February 19, 2022 from 10:00 - 11:00 a.m., followed by a service in the chapel at 11:00 a.m. Jane will be put to rest back home in Scotland. Due to capacity limitations, those attending services must call to pre-register their attendance with the funeral home 905-877-3631. In lieu of flowers, donations to Ian Anderson House are greatly appreciated.

Adoring Granny to Zoë, Emmett, and Charlie, whom she would take on many adventures, always with plenty of sweets in their pockets. Dear sister of Gordon (Morag) King of Scotland. Jane was preceded in death by her sister Isobel. She will be lovingly missed and remembered by many nieces, nephews and extended family members. An independent House are greatly appreciated. Loving and kind in all your ways, upright and just to the end of your days; sincere and true, in your heart and mind, beautiful memories, you left behind.

May the winds of love blow softly and whisper so you'll hear; we will always love and miss you and wish that you were here.

Time may heal the broken-hearted, time may make the wound less sore; but time will never stop the longing for the loved one gone before.

We are sad within our memory, lonely are our hearts today; for the one we loved so dearly has forever been called away. We think of you in silence, no eye may see us weep; but many silent tears are shed when others are asleep.
