Halton Hills is throwing its support behind the strictest sanctions possible on Russia and Belarus as troops continue to invade Ukraine.

Town council unanimously endorsed this sentiment in a motion passed during its Feb. 28 meeting, with the resolution also calling on the provincial and federal governments to assist and welcome Ukrainians fleeing war in their country.

"I think we're all saddened, disgusted and disturbed by the deplorable, brutal act of aggression by Russian President Putin on the sovereign country of Ukraine," said Mayor Rick Bonnette, who brought the motion forth.

"We want to let the federal government know we support all sanctions and the strictest sanctions possible on Russia and their partner Belarus."

Coun. Ann Lawlor said she seconded the motion "as a supporter of peace, order and good government."

"I am proud of our national government's response with aid, with sanctions and offers of sanctuary to Ukraine's refugees," she said.

The resolution notes that Halton Hills Council also fully supports the federal government on any supplies/aid it can provide to assist Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy and the people of Ukraine.
