

LIBRARY HOSTING DRAG QUEEN STORYTIME

The fabulous drag queen duo of Fay Slift and Fluffy Soufflé will sashay back to the Halton Hills Public Library in July for another inclusive story hour following the immense success of the last outing.

The previous Drag Queen Storytime in 2019 was the library's highest attended program of all time.

Fay and Fluffy, who have been doing drag storytime across the GTA since 2016, will be reading books to young kids in support of the 2SLGBTQ+ community, friends and allies — featuring songs and including lots of laughs.

"We are so pleased to offer this fun and educational Storytime once again," said Melanie Southern, chief librarian and CEO. "An inclusive community is a strong one and Pride doesn't end with Pride Month. This Storytime celebrates the love of reading, diversity, appreciation of others and it's also lots of fun."

Fay and Fluffy are both experienced child educators. Fay (JP Kane) is an educator by day with the Toronto District School Board, while Fluffy (Kaleb Robertson) is a child care provider and cultural producer.

This program helps support families with 2SLGBTQ+ children and parent(s), as well as gender variant children, their allies and supporters. The library invites everyone of all ages to attend and have fun.

The free event runs from 10 to 11 a.m. at the Georgetown branch of the library on Saturday, July 9. Tickets are available at the Georgetown branch's John Elliott Theatre box office.
