day lunches followed by bingo.

The Aug. 18 intergenerational movie will be Pixar's A Bug's Life. Note the earlier start time of 10 a.m.

In July, we had an intergenerational camp movie morning. The children and adults enjoyed Disney's Meet the Robinsons. The young people also enjoyed carpet bowling with the seniors.

The books, puzzles and games sale is on Saturday, Aug. 13. You can purchase a hotdog or a hamburger and drink while choosing the perfect book or puzzle to enjoy as the days start to get shorter.

We will be at the Leathertown Festival on August 14. Stop by and say hello. I understand we will have a free draw, as well as information about both centres and the September open house.

There is a sign-up sheet for anyone who would enjoy playing golf at Blue Springs on the Academy Course on Wednesday, Sept. 21 followed by lunch.

Members from Georgetown are also going to join us. If you still feel energetic, you can play another nine holes following lunch.

Julie Conroy is the public director for Hillsview Active Living Centre Acton. She can be reached at hillsviewacton@gmail.com.
