Halton Police are hunting for two suspects who allegedly took off with unpaid merchandise from the Armani outlet store at the Toronto Premium Outlets.

On Aug. 14, a man entered the store at 13850 Steeles Ave. W. and took two Armani jackets — valued at $10,000 — to the fitting room before putting them in a duffel bag he had entered with, police allege.

"The suspect left the store, making no attempt to pay for the jackets. The male was in the company of a female during the theft," police said on their website.

The man has been described as being six feet tall and in his 40 to 50s with a large build and short black hair. He was wearing a blue blazer, a white polo shirt, dress pants and brown dress shoes. He was carrying a duffel bag.

The female suspect has been described
