

Town of Halton Hills photos

Halton Hills Public Library branches in Acton (left) and Georgetown (right) are now offering tailored newsletters.

LIBRARY OFFERING TAILORED NEWSLETTERS FOR NEW TITLES

HERB GARBUTT
hgarbutt@metroland.com

The Halton Hills Public Library has launched new collection newsletters tailored to subscribers' needs and interests.

The monthly newsletters, Book News, feature recently released titles. Newsletters are available for: picture books; chapter books for older kids and tweens; young adult books; and fiction and non-fiction books for adults and older adults.

"We are so excited to offer these collection newsletters to the community of Halton Hills," said Heather Stoll, collections and support services librarian. "We feel these newsletters offer a much more personal approach, allowing patrons to read and receive more of what they want from their library."

Visit www.hhpl.on.ca/en/about-us/book-news.aspx to register for Book News.

save.ca
Cut out paying more

Your only destination for more coupons, more flyers, more savings.

#SavingWithSave

Save $2.00 on Nestlé® Carnation®
Simply Hot Chocolate Envelopes

Scan to get coupons

save.ca/coupons

halton.ca 311

Fall Compost Giveaway

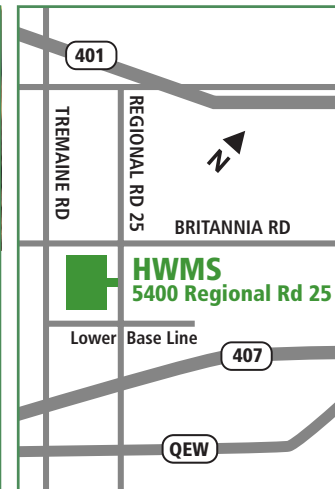

Halton residents are invited to our complimentary fall compost giveaway as a thank you for helping divert approximately 30,000 tonnes of yard waste last year. During the event, Halton residents can pick up to the equivalent of seven bags of compost per household.

When: September 17, 2022 | 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Where: Halton Waste Management Site,
5400 Regional Road 25, Milton

Who: This event is open to residents of Burlington, Halton Hills, Milton and Oakville. Visitors may be asked for proof of residency.

Remember to bring:

• Up to seven of your own bags or containers

• A shovel to bag your compost

Gardening tip:

When applying compost to your garden, blend it with topsoil or another gardening fill. For best results, apply 60 per cent topsoil and 40 per cent compost.

Please note staff will be accepting food donations. No cash donations will be taken at this time.

For more information, visit halton.ca/waste or call 311.

Helping job seekers find employment in Halton

Halton Region is a great place for residents looking to find a new job or pursue a new career. Our Employment Halton team works to help individuals find employment by offering tailored resources that help secure and maintain employment. Job seekers can take advantage of various free supports including job search support, interview and resume preparation, training opportunities and self-employment support. Employment Halton also offers resources for employers including free job postings, job placement programs and opportunities to connect with qualified candidates. Connect with Employment Halton and find more information at halton.ca.

Meetings at Halton Region

Regional Council meetings are taking place through web conferencing until further notice. Videos will be posted to halton.ca.

Please contact us, as soon as possible, if you have any accessibility needs at Halton Region events or meetings.