REETI ROHILLA

An avid community volunteer, David McLean has been recognized as the Rotary Club of Acton's Citizen of the Year.

"It was a big surprise," said McLean. "What an honour to have been selected among all of the great people here in Acton."

McLean is a longtime Food for Life volunteer, and an important figure at Branch 197 of the Royal Canadian Legion.

The Acton resident has made several community donations over the years, including at the blood bank, shared the Rotary Club of Acton website.

Currently serving as president of Hillsview Acton Living (Seniors) Centre, McLean is also the recipient of the 2022 Halton
