MCLEAN KNOW AS 'SELFLESS' VOLUNTEER

Volunteer Impact Award. The club seeks public nominations for the citizen of the year award, which are reviewed by a selection committee made of three former citizen of the year recipients.

"The committee has selected an outstanding selfless candidate and many will attest to his kindness. David (McLean) is someone who makes Acton a nicer committee to be a part of," said Acton Rotarian Nancy Wilkes.

After the loss of his partner earlier this year, McLean hopes to devote more time to community service — something that he said gets him going.

"The Acton community is like a family to me," said McLean, who spent countless hours checking in on neighbours and fellow seniors during the height of COVID lockdowns.

A dinner in McLean's honour is planned for Oct.

David McLean plans to spend even more time volunteering going forward.

11 at the Acton Town Hall. Individuals are invited to join the celebration and can purchase tickets by contacting the Rotary Club of Acton at ActonRotary@Hotmail.com.

STORY BEHIND THE STORY: With Acton Rotary naming David McLean as its Citizen of the Year, we wanted to share what this long-time volunteer has meant to the community.
