Fifty people enjoyed the pancake breakfast on Oct. 4. It was such a success that we are planning another on Tuesday, April 4 to celebrate the end of Lent.

We are also busy planning the next big fundraiser, our Christmas tea and bazaar, on Saturday, Nov. 26. It will include a bake table, books, puzzles, gently used Christmas decorations and more.

There will be a list up shortly asking for items needed for the tea.

Kim Lang has a full bus going to the Niagara Casino on Oct. 27. She plans to go four times a year.

Don't forget to purchase your ticket for our next social dinner on Wednesday, Oct. 26. You will enjoy barbecue pork loin, vegetables, and cheesecake to end the delicious dinner. If you still have the energy, you can dance or listen to Ronnie Russell.

It sounds like we are always eating, but we also offer a variety of exercise programs — carpet bowling, darts, painting, movies — and a book club.

Shuffleboard has restarted at a new time, Wednesdays from 4 to 5:30 p.m., and coming soon will be indoor putting.

Legal mat- LITIGATION

ASK THE PROFESSIONAL

Q

I am separated. I had a personal injury matter that settled. Is any of the settlement proceeds relevant to my family law matter?

A

We have handled a number of these situations. The settlement is likely entirely relevant as you have to provide full and frank financial disclosure. However, some of the settlement may be exempt from being considered or divided in the family law process. For instance, “general damages”, i.e. damages for pain and suffering, are considered exempt and not subject to division or sharing. Amounts paid as part of the settlement for past and/or future income loss may very well be relevant to issues of determining support obligations. It is usually necessary to get full details of the settlement breakdown, as well as past and future medical documentation if the injured party is taking the position he or she has been and continues to be unable to work. We do a lot of family/divorce law, with offices in Georgetown, Brampton and Caledon East. For now, we are continuing to do most everything virtually. So we are happy to have a Zoom meeting or a telephone call with you without charge to you to see if we can assist you. Be safe and healthy.
