

Lest we forget REMEMBRANCE DAY

N O V E M B E R 1 1

Remembrance Day is a time to pay tribute to those who gave their lives in the defense of our values and freedoms. On November 11 we observe two minutes of silence, attend local ceremonies or watch the national ceremony in Ottawa. There are so many stories associated with those who are remembered and continue to serve. This annual special section is an opportunity to explore the role of Canadians in war and peace. "Lest we forget."
