

ONTARIO'S SOIL

IS WORKING FOR YOU

Did you know the agri-food sector employs over 860,000 Ontarians along the supply chain and provides over $47 billion to the GDP?

Soil is the backbone of the agri-food sector.

The Ontario Farmland Trust and the Greenbelt Foundation are working to protect all types of agricultural soil.

Soil has 7 classifications for their agricultural capabilities. All classes have an important role.

Farmland provides a range of ecosystem services, like water filtration, flood mitigation and carbon sequestration.

These benefit both the environment and nearby communities.
