

HOLIDAY MARKET RETURNS TO DOWNTOWN GEORGETOWN

The Georgetown Holiday Market is back to spread holiday cheer.

Put on by the Downtown Georgetown BIA, the holiday market takes place on consecutive Saturdays, Dec. 3 and 10, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Main Street South. It includes local small businesses, craft and food vendors. It is an opportunity to find a unique holiday gift, warm up with a hot drink or spending time with friends and family enjoying the holiday atmosphere.

"It is always such a joy to bring crowds to the downtown area. We have fantastic downtown shops, services and restaurants all serving to create the perfect atmosphere for our special events," said Downtown Georgetown BIA manager

Herb Garbutt/Metroland

The Georgetown Choral Society entertains with Christmas carols at last year's Downtown Georgetown BIA's Holiday Magic and Market.

Nikki Jackson. "This is the perfect opportunity to shop local, support local businesses and take care of all your holiday shopping and needs."

The family-friendly market will have hockey-themed activities on Dec. 3 and a free mini train ride on Dec. 10, and if you're lucky,

Santa might even stop by.

"The farmers' market is a staple in our downtown, and to expand with the holidays provides an excellent opportunity for the community to reunite with friends and family," said Bethany Hanman, the Downtown Georgetown BIA events manager.
