Grease cast ready to set "greased" wheels in motion on JET stage

If listening to old records, reading about Elvis, or watching "Happy Days" reruns leaves you feeling nostalgic, then get ready for a trip down memory lane. The decade of poodle skirts, duck tails, and Hot-Rods is on its way to the John Elliott Theatre in Georgetown. Globe Productions presentation of "Grease".

Ambrose and Eric Witvoet, and choreography from Act-Co award winner Evelyn Webster, this production is hotter than Greased Lightning.

An energetic and dedicated cast set the "greased" wheels in motion two months ago, and the hours and weeks of hard work are paying off. All are looking forward to a fabulous production, complete with an authentic 50's set and a live band that's nothing short of spectacular.

This is Globe's first attempt at a summer show and it promises to be every bit as much fun as Globe's many award winning predecessors. With direction from David matinee on the 8. Tickets are only $12.00 each for the evening shows, and only $8 for the Saturday matinee, but they're going fast! So if you want to put a little fun in your Summer Nights, head to Royal LePage and get yours today.
