

Dodgers, Cardinals net GBA baseball titles

The Dodgers and the Georgetown Firefighter Cardinals captured the Tyke and Squirt championships last weekend at the Georgetown Baseball Association's Tim Horton Day of Champions.

In the Tyke final, the Dodger pitching staff completely shut down the vaunted Angel offence for a 12-1 victory.

Jesse Viens, Matt Walker, Paul Dimarco and Simon Ford combined to no-hit the Angels.

Offensive punch was supplied by Derek Douey Mitchell and Wayne Meinen, who each had a triple single and two runs-batted in. Daniel Szlachta also drilled a triple and drove in two runs, as did Paul Dimarco, who added a double.

Simon Ford, Matt Walker and Jesse Viens chipped in with singles. Phillip Stocks hustled a routine ground ball into a run with some bold baserunning. Brad Naylor showed patience at the plate drawing three walks and scoring two runs, including a theft of home plate.

Scott Graham, Jamey Doole and Shane Maradino added key leadership in this complete team win.

In the squirt final, the Cardinals won the title with a 21-15 win over the Elliott Custom Brokers Pirates, who finished the regular season in first place.

The Cardinals displayed a wicked offence as Vince Burke, Shawn McCulloch, Zack Hess, Corey Nilsson, Craig Seitz, Dave Penney, Alana Perkin, Scott Rostrup and Kyle McIlvenna all had four hits.

McIlvenna slugged a homer and also made a fantastic bare-handed catch of a hard line drive while at pitcher. Robbie Alcorn and Chris Henderson each belted three hits for the Pirates while Jordan Scuralli played well defensively and offensively.

This week the Under 10 Girls soccer teams play one of their last few games of the season. Neither failing light nor misty rain can keep an avid soccer team from playing. Armstrong Insurance and Andrew Murray Motors showed up with less than full strength teams but played on to a 3-1 score for the Motors. Chrissy Pereira scored one for the Armstrong Insurance while Leah Crane netted two for the Motors and Laura Shields added one for good measure. The Motor players saw Sharon Rowan play her best game of the season with Steph

Fielding and Angie Crane contributing to the team effort. Thank you to Danny Shields as substitute coach. The Armstrong Insurance team kicked well in the rain. A ball to the head didn't stop Laura Casey while Rachael McBride and the rest of the team all played well with "mist" on their faces. The rain didn't stop referee Rob Timmings either. He had a hat to keep the rain off, so he could see the plays.

The Burger Kings were hungry at Mackenzie-Smith field in Acton. Kira Lawrence scored 3 goals and Jamie Ellis netted one her way right away to put the final score at 4-1. The game was closer than the score appears as the Recochem. Turbos were charged up. Tamara Gilmore got the Turbo goal and the team kept the pressure on. The great Recochem players of the game were Sharilyn Kogan, Jennifer McBean and Julie Thompson. Noteworthy for the Burgers were Jennifer Murray, Michelle Smythe and Katey Lee. Thanks to substitute coach M. Salton.

Elks Lodge gave Millieres TV a run for the money this week as the skills of the summer are starting to show. Playing well for the Elks were Ellen Smith who charged the goal several times, Melanie Sherren who has developed some good defensive kicks and Karen Zomer with end to end play. Goal scorer for the Elks was unreported but Ashleigh Dunlop got a goal for the Millieres side and Charlene Roche got 3. Michelle, Keri and Shannon Hofing all had their dials tuned to defense for Millieres TV for that final 4-1 score.

Under 10 Girls Rep Team
The one hot Saturday of the summer saw the Under 10 girls playing at the Youth All-Star Soccer tournament in Etobicoke. Playing 11 per side is a new experience for the girls.

The first game resulted in a 4-0 score for Newmarket. Although the Georgetown Reps started with a strong first half, the Newmarket team kept the pressure on and kept shooting at the goal. The second game against Scarboro United was exciting to watch. After Scarboro scored in the first half, Bethan Elliott on a pass from Janine Taylor retaliated with a ball in the Scarboro net. Rebecca Culp was kept busy
