Sinclair defends ladies golf title

North Halton Golf & Country Club recently held their Club Championships in three consecutive rounds of great (and dry) golf. Gloria Sinclair is once again the reigning Ladies' Champion although she did have stiff competition this year. Julie Green finished one stroke behind Gloria to claim the "A" Flight Runner-up title. The "B" Flight winner was Valerie Ferguson who finished six strokes ahead of the ladies who tied for second - Joan Shapcott and Shirley McDermot. "C" Flight was a close match but Betty Ann Mulholland came out the winner ahead of Donna Jackson. Phyl Monckton capably won "D" Flight with Audrey Houston coming second.

In the "Seniors" Division, Marilyn Medlock won for the second year in a row followed by Lois Lawlor. The Diamond Lil winner for the fourth time in five years was Jean Chappel. Second in that division was Gladys Coldwell.

The Low Net Winner for the competition was Kathy Crowe.

Congratulations go to all winners and competitors for their fine efforts!

Tuesday, August 25, became the rain date for the North Halton G.&C.C. Ladies' Field Day and, though not without rain, seventy-two players were able to complete the fun nine-hole competition without complication.

The top prize went to "Golfer of the Day" Jean Chappel who came first in most categories in her Flight. In second place was Elizabeth Marsh and third place was captured by Phyl Monckton.

Georgetown girls narrowly defeated with great goal kick-off. There was nice ball turning from Laura Shields, with good passing from Kira Lawrence and Tara Rafferty. Strong and long kicks from Alyssa Taylor and Bethany Booker were not enough to stop the Scarboro team from an acutely angled goal in the last few minutes with a final result of 2-1. The rest of the team who played under the cloudless sky were Sharilyn Kogan, Sarah Czerwinski, Meghan Gogan, Stephanie Fielding and Jaimie Ellis. Many thanks to Al Gogan who coached the team and his son, Paul Gogan for being manager.
