Under 10 girls soccer Burger Kings victorious in "battle of the burgers"

The final games of the regular summer season have now been played in Under 10 girls mini-soccer.

Cup Day will be the last occasion to celebrate a soccer summer. Neither rain nor mosquitoes kept the players, parents and coaches from the black and white ball at Emmerson and Mackenzie-Smith.

At the battle of the burgers game, Burger Kings kicked in more goals than Wendy's Winners in a steady game.

Heather Cunningham, Bethany Booker and Laura Bowman were noteworthy for the Burgers while Andrea Patton, Rebecca Culp and Jasmine Landau played well for Wendy's Gold. Kim Timmings refereed.

Recochem kicked three balls during the first quarter when they played Elks lodge but only one was allowed and the score ended at 1-0. Sharilyn Kogan had the lone marker for Recochem.

The spirit of the game was not dampened by the light rain and good play continued. Playing well for Recochem were Amanda Burgan, Rhonda Myers and Julie Thompson. Noteworthy for the Elks side were Katie Elliott, Brianne Evers-Jordan and Sinead Irvine.

Armstrong Insurance played Millieres TV with Shannon Sommerville kicking the Insurance goal. Laura Casey, Teri Reynolds and Shannon played a great game as forwards.

The Millieres TV team tallied five goals with Melanie Adams, Ashleigh Dunlop and Caroline Seack defending and passing well.

The game of the week was a tight game between Municipal Trust and Andrew Murray Motors.

Both teams were evenly matched in the first half. Leah

Crane kicked a third quarter goal for the Motors while Jaclyn Neial, just back from Ireland, made a great save with her face when Trust player Bethan Elliott charged the goal.

In the fourth quarter, Municipal Trust Player Bethan tied the game 1-1 with a solo run.

Playing well on defense for the Trust team were Lindsay Sproule, Jackie Spittal and Jennifer Varey with good positional play by all.

The Andrew Murray Motors players who were playing well were Kathryn Weston on Defense, Sarah Wood with great running and Jaclyn Neil with great blocking.
