Ready for 50th

The Georgetown Girls' Pipe Band is celebrating its 50th anniversary reunion this weekend with a gala list of events.

The band may be the oldest girls' pipe band in North America, according to reunion organizers and previous members Gail Bennett and Elaine Bertrand.

The band originally began in 1942 "out of the interest of a couple of local girls that wanted to get a band established," said Bennett.

The first parade featured 13 members, and the band would continue to flourish for half a century.

The weekend's festivities will include members coming from as far as Texas and Arizona.

The alumni band is comprised of previous members who will perform, some for the first time in years. An original piper from the 1940's will try her hand at her instrument, while a drummer that hasn't drummed in 30 years will pick up her sticks, gala organizers said.

Friday evening a Tattoo at the Georgetown Memorial Arena features the Queen's York Rangers, the Lorne Scots, the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders of Canada, and a total of about 180 performers. A special performance will be held by the Georgetown Girls' Pipe Band, including the alumni band. Tickets are $15 per person.

Saturday a dinner and highland ball will be held at Georgetown District High School in the cafetorium, featuring a dance with music by Dave Smallwood. Tickets are $25 each.

Sunday at 3 p.m. a tree planting ceremony will take place in memory of band members that have died, preceded by a reception at Knox Presbyterian Church and parade down to Remembrance Park.

Former members that have not registered can still register at the Lions Hall from 3 to 5 p.m. on Friday.

The Georgetown Girls' Pipe Band would like to thank the Georgetown Lions Club for years of active support.

For more information or to purchase tickets contact Elaine Bertrand at 877-8353, Gail Bennett at 877-6398, or Val Cunningham at 877-6398.
