

Fair-ly Fabulous...

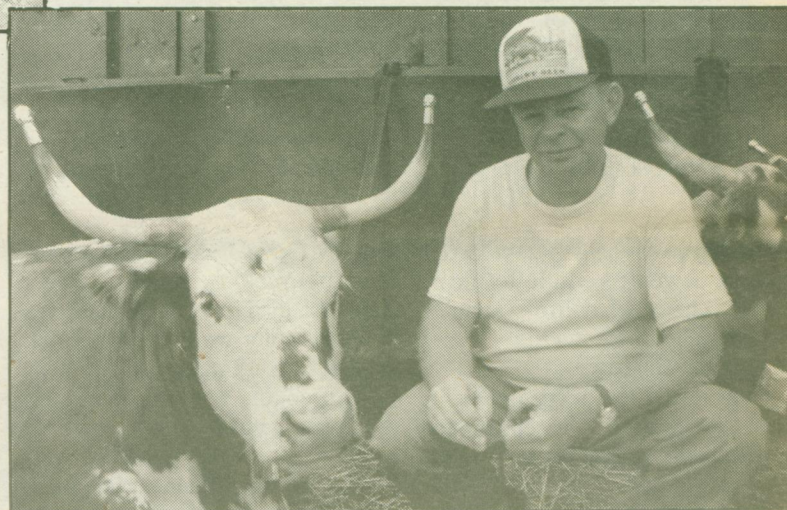

Excellent weather -- a rarity through the summer -- and a full slate of attractions combined to give Acton Fall Fair nearly record attendance.

Organizers hoped that Saturday's parade and warm temperatures would combine to give them nearly record numbers through the gate.

Here's a look at some of the Fair's highlights.

Photo by Scott Augustus

Talented animals had a chance to strut their stuff at the Fair. (Above left) This group of geese was expertly herded through an obstacle course by Border Collies Scott and Kate during a demonstration Sunday.

(Above) Ernie the oxen showed that some of our bovine friends can be very intelligent. Here Ernie sits with owner Andrew.

Photos by Scott Augustus

Photo by Kathy Toth

What would the fair be without a mid-way?

(Above) This pair seem to be enjoying a spin on the Tilt-a-Whirl.

(Left) Always a favorite, the Ferris Wheel attracted large crowds throughout the weekend to see the fair from the air.