Mani Mitera, owner of Barrager's Cleaners, stands in front of a pile of donated winter coats that citizens dropped off in one day last Saturday. Mitera said residents Halton Hills have given "a fantastic response." No more coats will be accepted. The coats will be distributed to the needy on October 3 and October 17 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Barrager's store at Moore Park Plaza in Georgetown. All of the coats -- which weigh 1,500 lbs. so far -- will be cleaned. For Acton citizens that need a ride on October 3 only, call Ted Tyler of Tyler Transport at 853-1550. Photo by Wendy Long
