

George Kennedy Public School received a front lawn full of trees earlier this month as students, parents and staff pulled together and planted over 25 assorted trees. Topsoil, planting equipment and machinery, and some of the trees were donated by community businesses. Each class then adopted a tree and each child's name appears on a Georgie the Giraffe placard. Pictured here are Andy Burns, Sheena Wakefield and Matt Desmarais enjoying their tree and learning about the environment. Photo by Wendy Long
