Strange tales

by Captain Comic

Some more exciting news on my battle against evil forces in Georgetown, trying to remove the Fourth Dimension from existence.

Well, they are not going to succeed, my Comic Junkies. Good always triumphs over evil and so I and the Sterling Warriors are creating a newer and stronger headquarters. Of course, to do this, we must shut down and rebuild our defenses, but for only a short while. Stay tuned to this channel for further information as to the reopening of Fourth Dimension's HQ.

Now, on to matters at hand. September is almost over, so what's next? October, of course. And what happens in October? Halloween. You guys are so smart!

Listen up, Comic Junkies - the Fourth Dimension is giving you secret information. For Halloween, Fourth Dimension will be holding a costume contest in two categories. The first is best superhero costume, such as Spider-man or the Punisher, etc. Next is a non-superhero contest where first prize goes to the weirdest and most coolest costume. Second and third prizes will be given to those who come second and third, obviously. When you win, you'll also get your name and picture in the paper. There will be a special guest appearance made by me, Captain Comic, Garth the Wonder Dog, and one of my favorite side-kicks, the Ad-man. The reason I'm telling you so far in advance is because I want you to work on these costumes so they can be really awesome.

One thing I want to make note of is the X-men cartoon that began last week. Cool, wasn't it. Along with the cartoon there is a new comic coming out called - you guessed it - "X-Men, The Animated Series." It promises to be just as cool as the cartoon and just as hot!

Dear Captain Comic:

My name is Willy Barrie and I'm fairly new to collecting comics. I love reading them and the artwork in most comics is excellent. Your article has been really helpful and I enjoy reading it. My favorite comic right now is Spawn. Todd McFarlane's art for this comic is incredible. His stories aren't too shabby either, I collect all of the image titles and I've noticed that most of them are limited series such as Brigade. What I'm unsure of is whether Spawn will be a regular series or limited. As well, I'd like to know if there is any chance of meeting Todd McFarlane anywhere so that I could get my copy of Spawn signed. I think that would be cool.

So until Spawn gets plastic surgery, I'll be reading Image. Willy Barrie.
Dear Mr. Barrie:

I'm glad that you are a new recruit to the Comic Junkie fandom! It is a pleasure to have you aboard and thanks for the compliment on the column. As well, I like knowing that you actually ready your comics - what a concept!

So far as I know, with my infinite knowledge, Spawn will be an ongoing series.

Now about our good buddy Todd, he is a local artist living in the Toronto area most of the time. It is likely that he will be at a convention in Toronto in the near future. At the comic conventions, Todd is always signing his comics and is cool to chat with. Keep reading the paper and I'll let you know the next time he heads this way.

Captain Comic

Well, Comic Junkies, I'm off to the Fourth Dimension with the Sterling Warriors to re-outfit and rebuild our new Headquarters. Remember to keep in touch and read your comics.

This is Captain Comic from the Fourth Dimension, with another Strange Tale!
