Acton Badminton
 October 1 — The Acton Badminton Club will start the fall-spring session on October 1. Come, enjoy yourself. Please contact George Lee at 853-1066 for registration or more information.

Art Show
 October 3 — The Fourth Annual Nassagaweya Art Show and Sale, will be held October 2 and 3 and features 22 area artists including Linda Donais, Laura Kingsbury and Jo Waiterson of Georgetown. It is a wonderful opportunity to discover high quality original art at affordable prices. The show will be held at the Nassagaweya Community Centre, Brookville, Guelph Line 6 km. north of Highway 401. Doors are open from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday.

Art Exhibit
 October 4 — An exhibition of watercolors and monoprints by Jo Waiterson will be on display in her studio at The Forge in Terra Cotta. The show opens October 4 from 12 to 5 p.m. and continues to November 8.

Chain of Life
 October 4 — On Sunday, October 4th, from 2:30-3:30, North Halton Pro-Life will be having its second annual Life Chain. Life Chain is a peaceful, prayerful witness to the truth — the sanctity of life — and the reality that abortion kills children and exploits women. Last year, over 100,000 children were aborted in Canada and 100,000 women were exploited through abortions. To participate, meet at 2:15 p.m. at the parking lot of the Maple Avenue Baptist Church. For more information call Irene Merker at 878-2142.

Self Defense demo
 October 8 — The University Women's Club invites the public to attend a free self defense demonstration at 8:30 p.m. on October 6 in the Harrison Public School Library. It is an opportunity to learn some simple and effective techniques.

Mental Health Clinic
 October 8 — The North Halton Mental Health Clinic is offering a six week educational program starting October 8 1992 for family members and friends of individuals diagnosed with schizophrenia. For further information contact Linda or Mae at 878-7267.
