We have a large selection of Collector Plates from the Bradford Exchange!

Gifts and Collectibles

"God Bless Teddy," Plate One in artist Jennifer Welty's Sweetness and Grace collection, recalling precious moments of children in prayer. Issued under the Knowles hallmark in an edition limited to a maximum of 150 firing days. Bradex no. 84-K41-139.1.

"Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep," premiere issue in Corinne Layton's Small Blessings collection, portraying the faith and innocence of a beautiful child from the Victorian age. Issued in an edition limited to a maximum of 150 firing days and bearing the Knowles hallmark. Bradex no. 84-K41-148.1.

Collectible Porcelain Dolls by Ashton Drake Gallery

"Justin" has learned how to salute and holler "Aye, aye, mates!" He's hand-painted porcelain, and is the first issue in the Moments to Remember collection by Yolanda Bello. His nautical outfit is topped off with a jaunty cap, and he holds a wooden toy boat. Complete with red satin blanket trimmed in navy. Actual size is 23 cm. high, seated.

"Jill" is thrilled at tasting cotton candy for the first time. Like her brother "Justin," she's part of artist Yolanda Bello's Moments to Remember collection. "Jill's" face and limbs are hand painted porcelain, and she wears a sailor dress that matches her brother; her satin blanket is navy and white. Actual size is 23 cm high, seated.

Music Boxes in Porcelain by Ardleigh Elliott & Sons!

"The Lord Is My Shepherd" music box is blessed with a glorious re-creation of Cicely Mary Barker's famous watercolor for "The Children's Book of Hymns." Inside is a special 18-note musical arrangement of the hymn "The Lord Is My Shepherd," set to the Brother James air. The edition is strictly limited to a period of 90 firing days.

"Kitten on the Keys," a delightful music box in fine porcelain and 22-karat gold. Artwork features a White Persian kitten frolicking on the lid and around the base of each box. Plays the music of "Kitten on the Keys" by Zez Confrey. First issue in the Kitten Music Box collection. Edition limited to 150 firing days.
