Raiders now have option to make deal

his weight in gold, but the Raiders would settle for a solid defenceman or two to compliment their young blueline corps. Only Steve Weishar returns from last year's team.

Of course, any trade in junior hockey can only be made with the permission of the player.

Poulstrup admitted while the addition of Giurello gives the Raiders some flexibility in terms of a possible player move, he wouldn't say one way or the other if such a scenario will be enacted.

"If we decide defencemen are what we want we've got that option," he said, showing better moves than any player could display under game conditions. "What we have is kind of problem every team wishes it could have."

NOTES - Raider assistant coach Keith Bennett has decided to step down from his post. Bennett, who came aboard as an assistant with head coach Charlie Hanman last year, wasn't sure just how much time he could devote to the Raiders while trying to catch as many games of son Adam, who is currently playing defence for the NHL's Chicago Blackhawks. A successor hasn't been selected yet. . . Randy Bond's nickname these days could very well be The Hammer. After each game the Raiders hand out The Hammer award to the player who has come up with the best body check. Guess who has emerged as The Hammer in each of the two weekend games.

All eyes are on the football as it makes its way to a CIBC receiver during action Sunday in the Georgetown Ladies Flag Football League championship between undefeated CIBC and Arnies. Arnies pulled off the upset, claiming the league title.

Little news from Halton league play

by Alex Tough

Unfortunately there is little news for the Monday Halton league players and fans this week. I was unable to obtain the results and news from the league stats person due to my, always, busy final week in my other sport. We will catch up next week with all the highlights of last week and the current week.

This being Royal Canadian Legion Week the local legion premises were not available to the Industrial league, which moved to the Oddfellows Hall for last Wednesday's league matches. Most players found their way and managed the usual round of first and second division matches.

Acadian Pools lost 4-5 to Steeprock; Panthers defeated High Rollers 6-3; Westenders took out Gasketman Cutters 5-4 and Hustlers saw off Inter County by 8-1. In the second flight Ensigns hammered Bandits 9-0; Dream Team shattered Hotshots 8-1; Independents defeated Aces 8-1 and Taxmen took all nine from Firemen.

Already, indications are there for the championship run in. Cutters, Westenders and Hustlers lead the way in the top flight with Dream Team and Ensigns are the front runners in the second.

Hugh Smid opened with 148, Ian McDonald closed 100 and scored 140 and Danny Fraser replied with 126 and Mike Finn with 120. Rod Beaumont opened five with self and Beau Beaumont closing three each. Marcus Noel and Paul Kavanagh notched 140 and 133 respectively. Brian Walton started with 116 and Dan Abercrombie went 3-2 in starts and finishes. Chris Scutt started six and Bruce Hope scored 140 in a losing cause. Ray Ackrodt replied with 140. Harry X scored 121 and Art Cousens 109 with Roy Rudiger going six and four with tons from him, Al Murphy and Laurie Hopkins.

Bobby Rhynold opened with 100 and Shawn X scored 140. Brad Youmans had three closes. Jim Franks went five and five with Gord Bottoms scored 121 and Bill Hall started three. Bruce Capriol scored 132 to go with two starts and three closes. Joe Poirier went three and three on the night. Rick Appleyard notched a 140 for his steam.
