

Beaver Lumber impressive in debut

By Mara Fantegrossi

The Beaver Lumber Major Novice AA hockey club had an impressive debut last Monday. Sporting their new name, the Georgetown Raiders, as they claimed a 4-2 victory against Flamborough in their season opener.

The 1992-93 Major Novice squad is coached by Paul La Rose who led most of these same players to a stunning Tri-County championship last season as minor novices. LaRose is looking forward to another successful season and as the Raiders notched this all-important first win, they can now set their sights in that direction.

Last Monday's contest saw the AA Raiders not only make it to the scoreboard first, but also manage to hold Flamborough scoreless until midway into the final period.

Winger Kyle Hotham scored Georgetown's first goal with 1:36 remaining in the opening period, assisted by centre Ronny Larocque and newcomer Brandon Valente.

Midway into the second, center Graham McCulloch shot in an unassisted goal. Early in the third period, winger Mark Fantegrossi took passes from Corey Forbes and Kevin Binsell and scored the third and game winning goal.

Three minutes later, Flamborough finally got past goaltender Ryan LaRose, Kyle Hotham, however, responded quickly with his second goal of the game from Larocque. With only 28 seconds left, Flamborough scored again to make it a 4-2 final for Georgetown.

The 15-member roster of 9-year-olds for this year's Major Novices consists of: Kevin Binsell, Ryan Busby, Alex Durham, Mark Fantegrossi, Ryan Field, Corey Forbes, Chris Henderson, Kyle Hotham, Ronny Larocque, Ryan LaRose, Martin Lefebvre, Tim Mansfield, Graham McCulloch, Bradley Snow, Brandon Valente.

The Raiders' home opener at Memorial Arena is on Saturday at 5 p.m. against Brampton.

Black Machines have disappointing loss

By Wendi Goodhew

Sunday was the Raider Black Machines' second game of the year. Coaches Carson Minich, Rick Rideout and Doc Richardson had their Black Machines revved for action at the Alcott.

With Daryl Asbee in the sick bay with a broken hand and Ryan Smith absent the pit crew called up Dan Cabral and Shawn Hardcastle to fill the bench. Shawn showed lots of hustle and made some great passes, while Dan had some great scoring chances, just to miss.

Ching took the early lead. Robert McLeod using some heads-up hockey skills slipped the puck back to the point where Joey Goodhew waited to fire it by the Ching goalie, tying the game 1-1. The score stayed tied for some time until Ching stepped up the pace and drove on.

Judd Richardson and Robert McLeod were knocking on Ching's door throughout the game but just couldn't find the key to Ching's net. John Howell and Ryan Booth made some strong passes and good plays.

Ian Cartwright and Arron Kennedy knocked down a few Ching players to stop them from scoring. Adam Bowman did some good digging along the boards. Defense men Joey Goodhew, Jeff Telford, David Markham and Jeff Bahr showed they took no nonsense from Ching around our net.

They sent many Ching players to the ice when things got tough at the blue line and in front of our net. Goalie Joey Barber played strong in net for Georgetown stopping some near impossible shots keeping the score low. Chris Hall kept the spirits up on the bench.

This is only the Black Machines' second game and with a few more practise laps together Georgetown will be back looking for a win from Ching next time they meet. It is guaranteed to be a good game.

Thank you to Mal Dodge for his sponsorship and we invite him to come watch us play anytime.

Private music teachers

The next monthly meeting of the Halton Hills Music Teachers Association will be held On October 13 at 1 p.m. at St. George's Anglican Church in Georgetown.

Teachers of all instruments and of any qualifications are urged to attend. One area of discussion will centre on a local Spring Community music event.

We encourage all private music teachers in Georgetown, Acton and surrounding communities to attend.
