

AROUND THE TOWN

Sitting Patiently: On a sunny Sunday afternoon in February, a fisherman was spotted doing a little ice fishing on the frozen surface of Fairy Lake. As seen, he was settled in his chair, waiting for a bite. Ice fishing is definitely a sport for those with patience!

Yummy Pancakes: It was all smiles as many came through the doors and into the warm at St. Alban's Church to socialize and, more importantly, eat the delicious pancakes that were smothered in butter and drizzled with syrup! As pictured in this photo, it was safe to say everyone was enjoying the Shrove Tuesday pancake dinner, the first one that was held in a few years since the pandemic.
