

Hillsview Active Living Centre holds AGM, elects new executive for 2023

The Hillsview Active Living Centre, Acton branch, held their Annual General Meeting on March 28th.

During the AGM, a report on the Centre's performance for the 2022 calendar year was presented, which highlighted some accomplishments.

For 2022, membership was 305 with 53 new members signing up. It was noted that out of the 56 members who volunteered during 2022, they logged in over 4,500 hours which contributed to the operation of Hillsview.

Additionally, the Centre was able to make a profit of $23,095, with funding provided from the Town of Halton Hills.

The AGM also included the election of the new executive board for 2023.

The now past-president, Dave McLean, has the distinction of being the longest-serving president of 4 years due to the pandemic, compared to the usual two-year term.

Elected for the new executive include Dora Jefferies as President, MaryMcGregor as Vice-President, Susan Seeds as Secretary, and Cynthia Howe as Board Member at Large. Linda Gordon was re-elected as Treasurer.
