

AROUND THE TOWN

Piled Up High: Acton and area was dumped on with quite a bit of snow in early March, which meant it had to be pushed off to the side of streets and parking lots. The parking lot at the Acton Market Place plaza, on Queen Street, had a mountain of snow appearing almost as high as the sign at the plaza's entrance.

Quite the Market: There was a good selection of arts & crafts up for sale at the Hillsview Active Living Centre's Spring Sale, which was held at the Acton Arena & Community Centre on March 25th. In addition to the sale, items, from jars of honey to a 75" TV, were up for bid through a silent auction.

Round and Round We Go:
 Many local youth got their skates sharpened and hit the ice as they enjoyed their time during March Break, March 13th to 17th, ice skating around the rink at the Acton Arena & Community Centre—The perfect opportunity to keep active and have fun!
