

Defenceman Colin Hooper of the Georgetown Chrysler Raiders tries to tie up Mississauga forward Bill MacDonald in front of Raiders goaltender Jamie Szyk during action Saturday night. The visiting Derbys captured a 6-1 win, thanks in part to three power-play goals.

Raiders drop weekend games

Hanman said. "It's going to take a lot of hard work."

"This team is down, but by no means are we going to collapse."

"The 3-0 record was not an accurate reflection at all, it wasn't reality. Reality is we're going to have to fight for our wins."

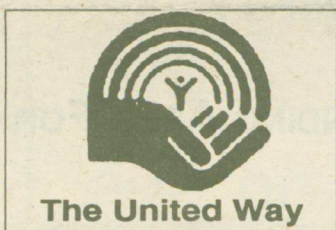

The Raiders schedule doesn't get any easier. The team is in Caledon on Thursday, hosts Brampton on Saturday and travels to Brampton for an afternoon contest Sunday.

NOTES

The finger injury to Sirota, originally thought to be a break, wasn't as bad as originally thought and he should be ready to go this weekend. . . . Georgetown's Steve Marcolini, a former Georgetown Jr. B Gemini defenceman who went on to be a steady blueliner for the Kitchener Rangers and the London Knights of the Ontario Hockey League, was behind the bench for Mississauga as an assistant coach. . . . Georgetown resident Bill MacDonald, a former Raider player, assisted on the Derbys' second goal. . . . Georgetown was minus defenceman Jon McKee on Saturday, who attended an engagement that was agreed upon long before the start of the hockey season. . . . Brandt is really on a tear over the last three games, having netted seven goals and an assist. . . . A favorite target of the Derbys on Saturday was Raider forward Brent Ford, who lives in Streetsville and played minor hockey there. . . . Rookie defenceman Colin Hooper, the newest addition to the Georgetown roster, played in both weekend contests and performed admirably. . . . The Raiders may have three goaltenders on camp with Sirota, Szyk and Carmello Giurello, last year's starter who returned recently after failing to catch on with the Sudbury Wolves of the Ontario Hockey League, but only Sirota and Szyk can play because Giurello hasn't signed a card with Georgetown yet.
