

Top pacers are crowned

By Kathy Wade Vlaar

Four world champions swept their respective Breeders Crown Championships on Friday, Oct. 9 as Mohawk Raceway hosted the richest night in its 30 year history.

Over $1.5 million in purse money was awarded during the evening including $1.3 million in four Breeders Crown events.

The brilliant Falcon Seelster mare, Shady Daisy, had little trouble handling her seven rivals in the $306,750 Breeders Crown event for pacing mares.

Driver Ron Pierce guided the four year old quickly to the front from the rail position but yielded midway on the first turn before moving quickly to regain the lead for a :27.1 opening quarter. Shady waltzed to a :57.3 half with little pressure, turned up the afterburners down the backstretch, putting some distance between her and the seven mares who couldn't catch her, let alone keep up with her. At the wire, it was all Shady Daisy and driver Ron Pierce in 1:53.2 to punctuate her first Breeders Crown start with a victory.

"It was easier than I thought it would be," explained an elated Ron Pierce, "I thought a couple would have come charging out of there."

According to her trainer Lou Bauslaugh whose wife, Tamela, co-owns Shady with her father, Ron Jackson, Shady hasn't been the easiest horse to train. "She's over enthusiastic; she's not a mean mare, she's very nice. But when she gets on the track she wants to win." And fact of the matter is she usually does.

The win was number 8 in 18 starts this year for Shady Daisy and the win increased her bank account to $404,655.

The 6 year old Baltic Speed mare, Peace Corps made history at Mohawk on Friday night with a 1:58 win in the $288,958 event for trotting mares.

The effort marked Peace Corps' fourth Breeders Crown victory, something no other horse has ever achieved.

Reined by trainer-driver Torbjorn Jansson, Peace Corps, the sport's all-time leading money earner, did not take command of the field until the top of the stretch.

One of the big winners at the Breeders Crown at Mohawk Raceway last Friday was Artsplace, which won the $368,100 Aged Horse Pace. The win was Artsplace's 15th straight.

Milton nips novices 2-1

By S. Burns

Thanksgiving Monday was action-filled for Georgetown's youngest Raiders. Milton was first to get on the scoreboard with two goals in the first period. The raiders were able to hold the opposition scoreless for the remainder of the game.

Andrew McGourty scored the only goal for the Raiders and did so unassisted with 41 seconds remaining in the third period. Coach, Jeff Sargent, pulled the goalie for an extra man, but the Raiders didn't manage to dump one in.

The team's loss wasn't for lack of trying. They had plenty of shots but couldn't find any opening.

The 16 player roster for the 1992/93 Minor Novice Raiders consists of Brent Beaumont, Vincent Burke, Andy Burns, Jason Forbes, Adam Kemp, Billy McDonald, Andrew McGourty, Robert Ogle, Graham Ovenden, Russell Parsons, Brandon Pearce, Scott Rostrup, Thomas Stokes, Brent Velten. Goalies are Alan Humberstone and Donnie Lane.
