THE COMFORTABLE GIC

The 18-month GIC that lets you out early!

Many people today are concerned about locking into long term GICs - you think interest rates may rise and you will be locked in at a lower rate.

The Municipal Trust Comfortable GIC makes your decision a little more comfortable. Take out this special 18-month GIC today and at the end of the first six months we will give you two choices. You may redeem your certificate (with interest and no penalty to you) or you may hold your certificate for its full 18 month term at the original high rate.

COMFORTABLE GIC

18 MONTHS

7.00%

Rate is subject to change. Call your Municipal Trust manager for full details.

So if you're looking for a GIC you can be comfortable with, simply visit with your local Municipal Trust branch manager and ask for The Comfortable GIC. But don't wait long! This special offer is available only until November 7, 1992. Minimum balance required is only $500.

Halton Hills spring music festival

Plans are underway to hold a spring music festival on May 1, 1993. The Halton Hills Professional Music Teachers Association is pleased to have Victor McCorry as our adjudicator.

All classes will be at the Georgetown Alliance Church, on Main Street south of Maple Ave. Vocal and instrumental students must provide their own accompanist, composition students must supply a copy of their work. Pianists, vocal and instrumental ensembles are also invited to participate.

Grade levels refer to the Royal Conservatory Syllabus, pieces may be chosen from any list. Entrants may not have passed the grade of their chosen class. If the class is determined by age, age is as of May 1, 1993.

For classes in which music is "own choice", students must submit a copy of their music with the entry form. The student's own original copy will be handed to the adjudicator, all entrants are advised to play from memory.

All students will be recognized for their performances. Students demonstrating outstanding musical excellence will be invited to perform their selections during a "Showcase Performance". Entry forms and feeds must be submitted by Jan. 31, 1993.

Please direct any questions to Sharon Dutton, 873-1177, Valerie Nichol, 853-4104, or Dale Wood, 877-1638.
