Gifts and Collectibles

"Arctic Spring: Snowy Owls," first issue in the Under Mother's Wing collection by renowned wildlife artist Jim Beaudoin, presenting a mother owl watching over her brood against the backdrop of the arctic tundra. Issued under the Knowles hallmark in an edition limited to 150 firing days. A portion of each sale will benefit the Society for the Preservation of Birds of Prey. Bradex no. 84-K41-134.1.

"Springtime Splendor," first issue in A Treasury of Songbirds collection by celebrated wildlife artist Rob Stine. A powerful and exquisitely detailed nature study. Issued under the W.S. George hallmark in an edition limited to 150 firing days. With 22-karat gold border. Bradex no. 84-G20-90.1.

Collectible Porcelain Dolls by Ashton Drake Gallery

"Polly" Won't you join "Polly" for a cup of tea? "Polly" is a porcelain doll designed by noted doll artist Susan Krey, and the first issue in the Polly's Tea Party collection. Her dress has the look of a fine heirloom with inset lace and pintucking. Complete with her own china teapot and doll stand. Actual size is 37 cm. tall.

"Lizzie" Holding her very Lown tea cup, "Lizzie" shyly asks if she can come to sister "Polly's" tea party. And why not, since artist Susan Krey created her as part of the Polly's Tea Party collection. "Lizzie" is hand-painted porcelain, in a party dress that is hand-smocked, with matching blue Mary Janes. Complete with tea cup and doll stand. Actual size is 33 1/4 cm tall.

Music Boxes in Porcelain by Ardleigh Elliott & Sons!

"The Scarlett at Twelve Oaks" Music Box. Scarlett, with sunshine in her hair and sunlight in her smile. She is the very image of the Old South; a charming girl who can set a beau's heart racing with a toss of her golden bonnet. The expressive music of Tara's Theme foretells great events yet to happen.

"Looking' Good, Soundin' Great..." "Blue Suede Shoes" in a Music Box. Nearly a billion people in forty countries watched on TV. And Elvis gave them an unforgettable show. Now the excitement of Elvis in floral lei and jewel-studded jumpsuit, singing Blue Suede Shoes, is yours. "Aloha from Hawaii." An Ardleigh-Elliott Legend™ music box. Authorized by the Estate of Elvis Presley.
