Industrial league holds doubles event

Scutts capture darts tournament

by Alex Tough

Well, back in harness after a week in Scotland with family and the soccer international world cup qualifying match between Scotland and Italy. The game ended 0-0 and was exciting to the finish. Enough of that and darts is the subject at hand.

The Industrial League held the teams doubles tourney and another well-staged and played event took place. The new tourney format again was in use and four sections were set up. Several "heavy" pairings came out in the first section draw with Chris and Dave Scutt emerging from a playoff to go through to the semi finals. Ray Inglis/Erwin See, Stan Rhynold/Brad Youmans and Gord Inglis/Gord Nokes also achieved semi final status. The Scutts won through to take the championship from Inglis/See with Rhynold/Youmans coming third and Inglis/Nokes finishing fourth.

Jim Carter had a 152 start and Bill McCartney a 126 start. Carter also fired two 140's as did Dave Scutt. Single 140's were scored by Dennis Lawrence and Rob Campbell. Other individual highlights, if any, were not recorded.

The Halton "bar" league held an extra activity on the weekend with the mixed blind open draw doubles. Mike Pepper and Paul Kirby came ahead of the pack for the win.

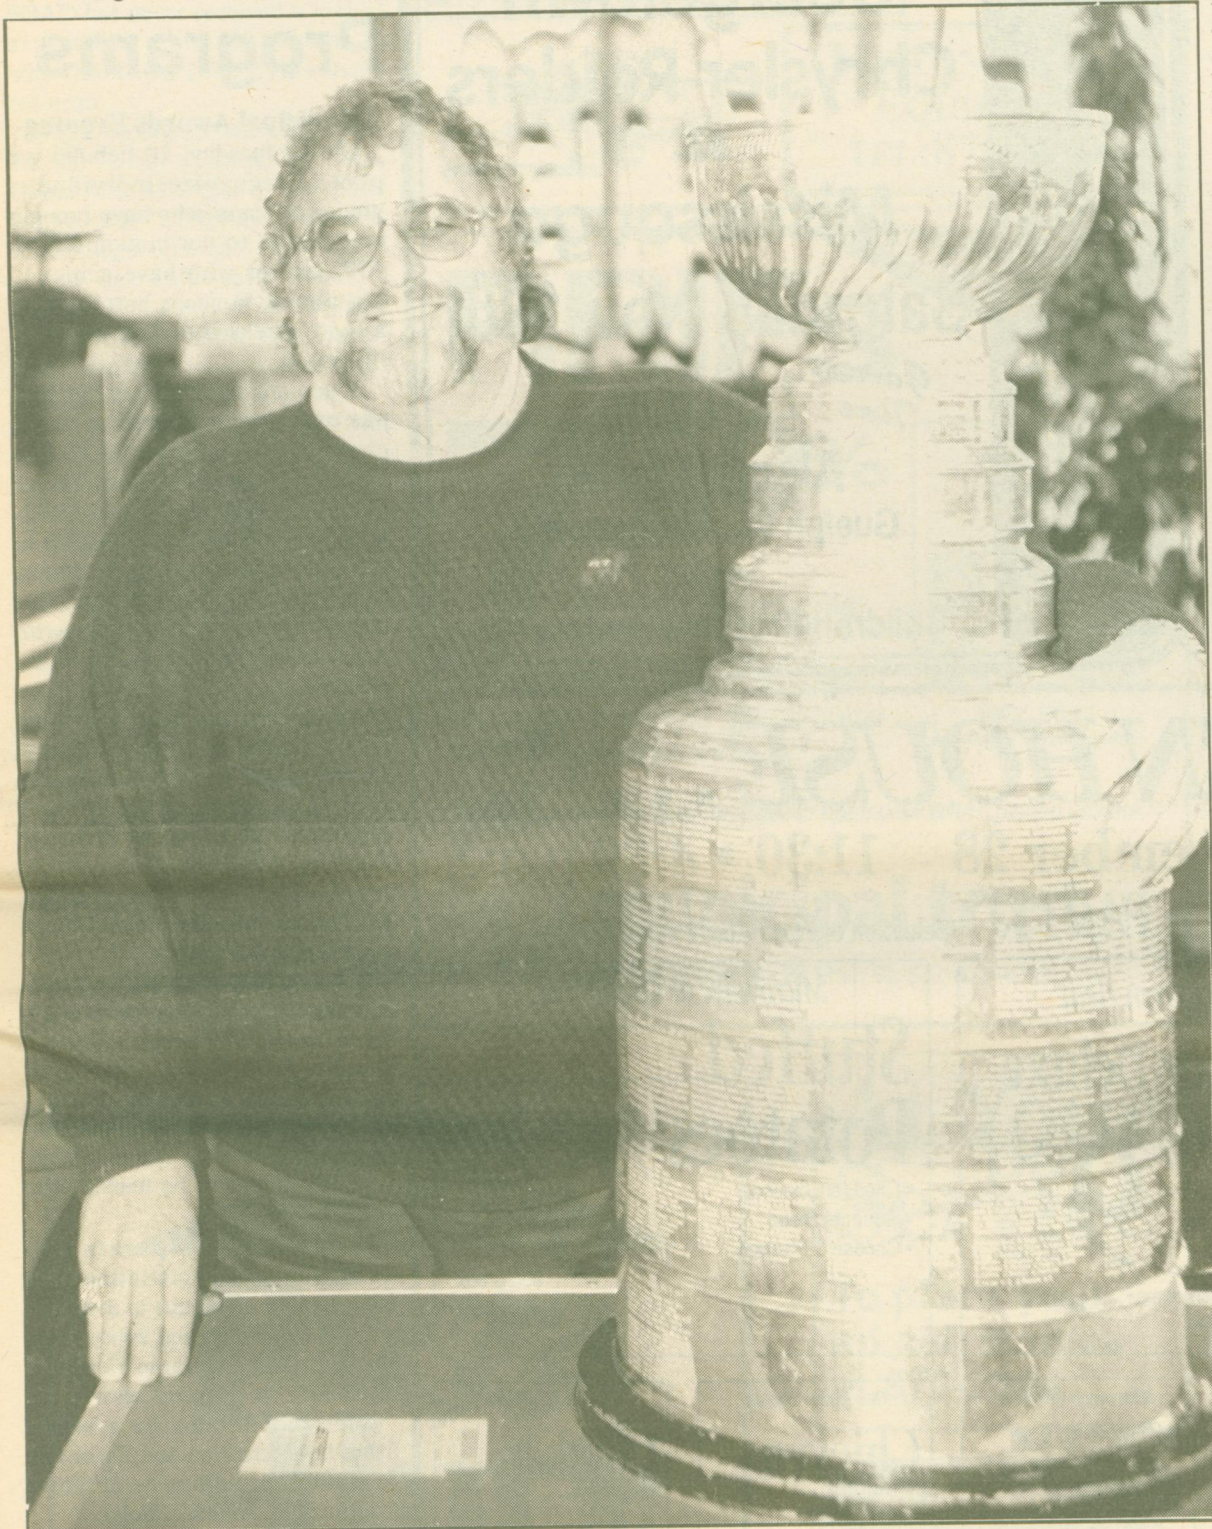

On Monday last (16th), the normal league play took place. The largest margin of the night was 13-1 in favor of George #2 over Timeout #2. 11-3 went to Legion #4 over Copper Kettle #1 and McGibbon over George #4. 8-6 to Legion #2 over O'Tooles, Legion #1 over George #1 and Timeout #1 over George #3. Legion #3 and Copper Kettle #2 tied 7-7, a rare event in the league.

Legion #3 opened with two team wins over Kettle #2. Kettle fought back in the singles and tied these 4-4, Sandy Mercer defeating a sad, non-doubling out Larry Hunt. Kettle then took three of the four doubles with Paul Goudie and "dummy" winning over Bob Downie and Doug Hole. A good match all round.

No maximums or high finishes this week but many high scores for bonus points Roger Armstrong's 160 led the way with 140's from Pete Pickering (3), Stan Rhynold, Kevon Lumbers, Paul Kirby, Neil Ormstead, and Wyman Somers all with two. Ian Copper fired a 152. June Norton and Rena Gray both fired 140 to lead the girls' stats. Caroline Vallance defeated Paul Dean in singles as did June Norton over Barb Hope and Rena Gray over Deanna Jackson (definitely ladies wins in the latter two games).

It is back to league play in both leagues this week so, a little more news next week.

Georgetown Chrysler's Barry Whitworth gets an opportunity that every hockey-playing Canadian dreams of; posing with the Stanley Cup. The legendary trophy, contested for annually by the NHL's best, is celebrating its 100th anniversary and was on display at the Alcott Arena.

AIA holding Cup breakfast

The Winnipeg Blue Bombers and the Calgary Stampeders won't be the only ones planning a get together in Toronto this weekend.

The Canadian Chapter of Athletes in Action will be holding its annual Grey Cup Breakfast on Saturday morning starting at 8 a.m.

The Bombers and Stampeders will meet Sunday for the Grey Cup at Skydome.

Tickets are $15 per person or $150 for a reserved table of 10. The breakfast will be held at the Constellation Hotel in Toronto.

Caps, Cougars hand Raiders puck defeats

It was a good news-bad news type of weekend for the Georgetown Chrysler Raiders.

The bad news was that the Central Ontario Junior Hockey League club dropped both of their weekend contests, extending their losing streak to 17 straight games. The good news is that the margin of defeat seems to be decreasing.

On Friday night Georgetown hosted East Division leader Brampton, losing an 11-8 shootout. The game's turning point was the second period, when the visiting Capitals outscored the home side 6-2.

Dean Roberts and Dean Doner had two goals each for Georgetown. Trevor Elinesky, Trevor Brandt, Jon McKee and Bryan Gendron had the others. Brandt and McKee scored on the power-play goals, with Gendron netting a short-handed goal.

On Saturday, Georgetown spotted visiting Burlington a 3-0 first-period lead before rallying to make a game of it, dropping a 4-3 decision.

Brent Ford, McKee and Elinesky scored for Georgetown. Goaltender Jamie Szyk made 26 saves.

With the weekend defeats, Georgetown's record stands at 4-16. One of the wins was awarded to the Raiders by the OHA after the Caledon Canadiens used an illegal player in a victory over Georgetown.
