Crime Stoppers

By Sergeant Dan Farr

Halton Regional Police Detectives in Georgetown and Crime Stoppers are appealing to the public for any information that will lead to the arrest of a lone gunman who robbed the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce.

On Thursday 12 Nov. at approximately 10:48 a.m., a man entered the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce situated at 82 Main St. in Georgetown carrying a briefcase in his left hand. He walked immediately to the middle teller's position, pushing a customer out of the way. He pointed a handgun, similar to a semi-automatic in description, at the teller and demanded money. The teller screamed and dropped to the floor. The robber went to the next teller and very forcefully demanded money. This teller complied with his demands and handed over approximately $5,000 in cash.

The culprit fled on foot from them and may have gotten into a vehicle described as mid-1980's Chevrolet Chevette, either dark gray or maroon in color, occupied by a female passenger.

The suspect is described as male, white, approx. 6 feet tall, 140 to 160 pounds, slim build, bad teeth. He was wearing a red & black plaid lumberman style jacket over a light-colored hooded sweater pulled up over a black toque. He also had on blue track pants with lettering down the legs, light-colored socks and running shoes. The track pants appeared too short and exposed his socks to view. The suspect is also believed to have been wearing dark-colored make-up to disguise himself.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this, or any other case, you may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000.

You need not give your name and your information will be treated with complete anonymity.

Please call 1-800-668-5151 or 825-TIPS (that's 825-8477).

The 18-member Board of Directors of Crime Stoppers raises money, decides on the amount of rewards and actually pays the rewards. Crime Stoppers of Halton is incorporated as a charitable organization, therefore all donations to the reward are tax deductible.
